NORD HIGHLIGHTS

NORD celebrated Black History Month with its First Annual Freedom Film Festival at Treme Center on February 25th. The film festival featured Martin Luther King Jr.: King Man of Peace and a Time of War. The festival opened with a song from the lovely and talented Kayla Love, a student at M. H. Nelson Charter School and a NORD dance and piano participant. New Orleans Freedom Fighters, Doratha Smith-Simmons, Jerome Smith and Matt Suarez shared their experiences and challenged the children to carry the torch ensuring freedom and justice for all. Each received a proclamation from the City of New Orleans for their contributions and participation in the NORD First Annual Freedom Film Festival. Special thanks: Ashe Cultural Arts Center, Carver/NORD Film & Television Program, New Orleans MIS Department and Police and Justice Foundation
